

Sports Recruiting Checklist

✓ 1. Make a Highlight Video

Create a short, high-quality highlight video showcasing your best plays.

☐

✓ 2. Create a Verified Twitter/X Account

Use a professional profile and pin your highlight video for easy access.

☐

✓ 3. Create a Professional Email

Use a simple format (e.g., yournamegradyear@gmail.com) exclusively for recruiting.

☐

✓ 4. Create a Player Profile

Build a one-page resume with your athletic stats, academic info, and links to your highlights.

☐

✓ 5. Make a List of Legitimate Schools

Target schools that match your athletic ability, academic goals, and personal fit.

☐

✓ 6. Complete Online Questionnaires

Fill out recruiting questionnaires for every school you are interested in.

☐

✓ 7. Look Up Showcases and Camps

Identify events where college coaches will be attending and make plans to attend.

☐

✓ 8. Get Coaches' Contact Information

Find and save recruiting coordinators' emails from school athletic websites.

☐

✓ 9. Communicate with Coaches

Send personal, well-written emails with your video, profile, and genuine interest.

☐

✓ 10. THE WORK

Stay consistent — improve your skills, grades, communication, and exposure every day!

☐